The image shows a handwritten ledger on grid paper. The text is organized into columns and rows. On the left side, there are two columns of text: the first column contains '10/6 a ab' and '10/6 ab', and the second column contains '5/11', '5/11', '5/11', and '5/11'. In the middle section, there are two columns of text: the first column contains '10/11 ab ab ab c' and '11/6 ab ab ab part', and the second column contains '17/11 ab ab ab c' and '17/6 ab ab ab'. On the right side, there are two columns of text: the first column contains '17/11' and '17/11', and the second column contains 'Silla 16.' and '17/11'. A horizontal line is drawn across the bottom of the grid, separating the main entries from the bottom-most row.
